

WA Tree Climbing
2010 Championships

Jackadder Reserve, City of Stirling

It's time again for the annual Western Australian Tree Climbing Championships. The 2010 event will be held at Jackadder Reserve in Woodlands within the City of Stirling on Saturday 17th April.

This is a great opportunity for male and female arborists and recreational tree climbers to compete for the chance to represent W.A. at the 2010 Australian Championships in Adelaide later this year. As always, there are great prizes and a wealth of experience to gain.

Venue: Jackadder Reserve, Woodlands, City of Stirling.

Facilities: Playground equipment, lunch areas, lake, barbeques, toilets, plenty of grassed areas, nearby shops and an exclusive outdoor rock climbing wall for the kids.

General Info: The park playground is modern and shaded, however as the lake is nearby, parents must still supervise their children. Food is readily available in nearby shops. The presentation of awards will be held at the conclusion of the event. The event will run for most of the day starting at approx 8.00am.
